Animals make the world a beautiful and wonderful place, so we must protect them at all costs! Did you know that many species are endangered? Let's always be kind and take care of the environment together to keep all these amazing animals alive! Thank you for listening to my speech.

Mission 2:

What is your favorite animal? Hello I am _____ and my favorite animal is the _____.
Animals make the world a beautiful and wonderful place, so we must protect them at all costs! There are over a billion different species in the world, including fish, amphibians, reptiles, mammals and birds. You can travel all around the world to see animals you can only find in certain places. I would love to go to _____, to see _____. But most animals are endangered! Let's always be kind and take care of the environment together to keep all of these amazing animals alive! Thank you for listening to my speech.

Mission 3:

What is your favorite animal? Hello I am _____ and my favorite animal is the _____.
Animals make the world a beautiful and wonderful place, so we must protect them at all costs! There are over a billion different species in the world, including fish, amphibians, reptiles, mammals and birds. You can travel all around the world to see animals you can only find in certain places. I would love to go to _____, to see _____. But many animals are endangered! Pandas, tigers, elephants, blue whales, okapis and gorillas are some of those animals. This is because of a decline in their habitats, but also when we don't take care of the environment! We can all do our part to support animals by visiting zoos and also learning about them! Do you know the organization called WWF, which is an acronym for the World-Wide Fund for Nature? I would like to help animals by _____. So please, let's always be kind and take care of the environment together to keep all of these amazing animals alive!
Thank you for listening to my speech.
