MISSION 3

When someone mentions “Hawaii”, what is the first thing that comes to your mind? Surfing?
Volcanoes? Hula? Pineapples? For me, when someone says “Hawaii”, I think of
_____.

Aloha! My name is _____. Today, I will be talking about Hawaii. It is the 50th State of volcanoes, surfing spots, and hula! Did you know that surfing was invented in Hawaii? Surfers from all over the world come to Hawaii to ride the perfect waves. Modern day Hawaii has a rich culture built upon the lives and traditions of the indigenous Hawaiian people, as well as the many immigrants who came to the islands as plantation workers during the early colonial period.

One influential culture is Japanese culture.

Did you know that Aloha shirts have Japanese roots? Japanese immigrants started heading to the Pacific islands after 1868. They are believed to have made flower print shirts with material from worn-out kimonos brought from Japan.

Across the islands you can find many Japanese restaurants, stores and businesses, which helps to make Hawaii a popular vacation spot for Japanese tourists, as well as contributing to the melting pot of cultures that make up Hawaii’s unique population. The “Aloha Spirit,” is reflective of the way many diverse groups live together on these small islands.

What I find most interesting about Hawaii is _____.

Thank you, and Aloha!
