MISSION 2

Howdy! My name is _____.

Today, I will be talking about New York and Cowboys. New York is a famous city located on the East Coast. It is known for having many iconic landmarks, beautiful parks, Broadway shows, and amazing pizza! When people think of New York, they usually think of skyscrapers and the big city, but even New York had their own cowboys in the past! Cowboys are from various states, such as Texas, Montana, and Idaho. They are known for wearing wide-brimmed hats, leather boots, and riding horses across wide-open plains. My favourite thing about cowboys is _____.

Thank you very much!

MISSION 3

When someone says “American Icons”, what comes to mind? The American flag? Baseball? Hollywood? I think of two things; the big city of New York, and cowboys.

Howdy partner! My name is _____. Today, I'll be talking about these two iconic symbols of America. While New York is famous for bustling streets and high fashion, cowboys are known for wide-brimmed hats and open plains. Yet, both are famous representations of American culture.

Did you know that New York style has ties to the iconic American cowboy? For generations, NYC fashion designers have been influenced by the look of the American West. Meanwhile, the actual cowboy traditions began in Mexico. Long before the Wild West was famous, Mexican cowboys invented the skills, tools, and the wide-brimmed hats designed to protect them from the sun and to scoop up water!

Just as Mexican culture influenced the West, Italian immigrants shaped New York. Arriving in the late 19th century, they brought incredible culinary traditions. In 1905, America's very first pizzeria opened in Manhattan's Little Italy, creating the thin-crust slices the city is famous for today. Ultimately, many different cultures have contributed to what we recognize as America today.

What I find most interesting about New York is _____.

Thank you, and Happy Trails!
